RATES OF ABVERTISING.

Newspaper proprietors generally, and especially of this ity, under the usages and regulations beretolore prevaling are called upon to perform more labor without remunera-tion, than any other class of community. The gratuitous publication of charity and religious advertisement, and communications, tributes of respect, contuaries, &c. &c., which can only be inserted at a heavy cost to the proprietor, imposes upon them a burden so onorous, that they feel called dpon, in self-defence, to check the abuse, by making such artificial control of the dpon, in self-defence, to check the abuse, by making such publications a charge, to some extent at least, upon the parties more mmediately interested. In this they are but following the example of the press in other cities, impelled by a sense of its intrinsic propriety, and imperative duty to themselves. The subscribers have, therefore, united together in a mutual agreement, upon the to lowing specified terms or the publication of these as well as every sort of regular business advantisher.
